Reclaiming Splendor: Ceramic Design by Chunmao Huang at ACAM

Featuring the First Lady of China's Banquet Ware

September 20 - December 30

Opening Reception: Thursday, September 20, 5:00 pm - 8:00 pm

Alfred Ceramic Art Museum at Alfred University

The Alfred Ceramic Art Museum announces a major new exhibition of porcelain tableware from China, which has never before been seen in the United States. In 2016, China's premier ceramic designer Chunmao Huang created banquet ware for Peng Liyuan, the First Lady of China. At her request he designed her banquet ware for the G20 summit, which was held at a historically distinguished restaurant on the shore of Hangzhou, China's famous West Lake. Turning her favorite color turquoise into a glaze, Chunmao Huang used this color to inspire his invention of a spectacular ensemble of porcelain recalling the past glories of Chinese ceramic history. As a result, he has introduced to the world a provocative and beautiful new assessment of the art of ceramic design.

Chunmao Huang writes: "For the First Lady's banquet ware, I strove to develop the model in a soft, delicate, rich, and variable way. For the weight, hardness, motion, and priority of design, I work like a pianist composes music, making sure there is tone, melody, climax, and subtlety."

Also on exhibition as part of Reclaiming Splendor, designed by Chunmao Huang: banquet ware for Xi Jinping, the President of China, for the BRICS summit 2017, the First Lady of China's banquet ware for the BRICS summit and the now often recognized porcelain tableware - thanks to a photo of President Obama enjoying the banquet - that Chunmao Huang designed for the Asia Pacific Economic Conference, APEC 2014, held in Beijing.

Chunmao Huang is a 2003, MFA, graduate of the School of Art and Design, Division of Ceramic Art, New York State College of Ceramics at Alfred University. In addition to being China's leading ceramic designer, he currently is the chair of the ALFRED-CAFA Ceramic Design for Industry Program, a collaborative educational initiative between Alfred University and the Central Academy of Fine Arts, Beijing, China.

Student Payroll Documents

Students, Welcome back to Alfred!

If you have never worked on campus before and intend on securing a work study or non-work study job you will need documents to complete your Human Resources paperwork. Without these necessary documents your job cannot be entered into the Banner system and you cannot start working.

Work Study Students Need:

EAC Card from Financial Aid, completed by your Supervisor

Wage Statement from your Supervisor or Human Resources

W4 (HR will provide this)

Bank account number and routing number for direct deposit

Appropriate I-9 documents (these documents must be originals, copies are not accepted!)

Non-Work Study Students Need:

Student Payroll Authorization Form completed by your Supervisor

Wage Statement from your Supervisor or Human Resources

W4 (HR will provide this)

Bank account number and routing number for direct deposit

Appropriate I-9 documents (these documents must be originals, copies are not accepted!)

If you are an international student additional documentation needed:

Passport

Visa

Social Security Card or Letter of Application

I-94

I-20

Please see the attached document regarding what is an acceptable document for I-9. The I-9 is a government form that verifies that you have the right to work in the United States. These documents are what hold most students up with having their job entered, because they do not have them. If you do not have them and want to work, you will need to get them sent here to complete your paperwork. You cannot begin work until we have these documents.

Any questions, please contact Kayleigh Misner, Human Resources Generalist. misner@alfred.edu

Engineering in Germany

Want an inside view into world-class lean manufacturing? How humans and robots work together?

We have a unique opportunity to go "behind the scenes" and see BMW, Mercedes and other German industries. Plus, absorb German culture and go to a German university and compete with German students in a manufacturing simulation. If you are a junior or senior, this is an excellent APEX opportunity.

All these topics will be covered in the Allen Term 2019 class on the German Auto Industry. If you are interested, come to an information session September 10 at 4:45 pm in Olin 307.

Free Plants from Herrick & Scholes

Stop by Herrick or Scholes Library on Thursday for a free plant to brighten up your room, office or studio. Our campus community has deep roots and Herrick and Scholes are places where knowledge is cultivated and students and Faculty can be nurtured in their academic pursuits. These little plants were grown and propagated directly from existing library plants, so you can take a real piece of the libraries with you. While supplies last! Plant your roots at AU and you will surely grow!

Artist In Residence Allen Riley

Dates: September 3 - 8
Location: Alfred University
Sponsored by: NYSCA and The Institute for Electronic Arts

Allen Riley is a teacher, a video artist, and a videogame developer. As a teacher, he creates hands-on projects for K-12 students and adults that seek to build agency in the use of both tools and an understanding of their history. This informs his practice as a video artist and game developer, which is focused on creating contact points between people and the physicality of electronic and digital systems, with an emphasis on waveforms and patterns that occur in nature. He design interconnected live video systems that integrate with a location to become reactive and alter a person's experience of that place. I further craft these environments through the creation of sculptural objects and shelters. It is important to him that his work functions as a real place and not as an image. It is a site of image production. His aim is to provide visitors with tactile entry points into self-reflection and dialogue regarding their own practices of media production and consumption.

Gary Sczerbaniewicz: Neil Before Zod, Opens at Cohen Gallery September 14

Gary Sczerbaniewicz: Neil Before Zod

Opening reception Friday, September 14, 6-9pm

Cohen Gallery will host a month-long exhibition of work by alumnus Gary Sczerbaniewicz '95.

"Neil Before Zod" opens Sept. 14 and runs through Oct. 19. Sczerbaniewicz earned a B.F.A. in sculpture from Alfred University in 1995 and went on to earn an M.F.A. in visual studies from the University at Buffalo in 2013.

Sczerbaniewicz's series of installation works investigates the interplay between the rational and the irrational as illustrated in three interactive spatial vignettes. The conceptual matrix behind NBZ arises from the true-life relationship between chemist, rocket scientist, and founding member of NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory, Jack Whiteside Parsons, and the pulp-science fiction writer and founder of Scientology, L. Ron Hubbard. The two belonged to a US offshoot of a European sex-magick cult called Ordo Templi Orientis (OTO), through which they attempted to produce a "Moon Child"... a synthesis of human and demonic entities.

This uncanny co-mingling of rational, post-enlightenment science with mystical, occult, and arcane magical practices creates a compelling impetus for artistic play and wild rumination. Sczerbaniewicz has subsumed this bizarre narrative and its extended "family" into a composition furthering his interest in creating disorienting viewing scenarios in which spectator and subject are brought together under specific physical and spatial constraints, and to create viewing environments that embrace a sense of cognitive dissonance and intellectual uncertainty.
