Partial Cable TV Outage

After Sunday's wind-storm, a large number of our campus cable channels are unavailable. We are actively working on the problem. But, it may be a number of days before we can fully restore all the channels.

We apologize for the outage and appreciate your patience as we get this problem fixed.

First-Time Ever: Be The First to Play Str8-Eight

Tonight (Friday) will become legendary! just like when baseball was first played in Cooperstown, a bunch of pioneers will play the first official tournament of Str8-Eight - a new card game invented by Alfred's Peter McClain. It only takes minutes to learn and each round is about a 1/2 hour. Prizes for those who win three rounds and become the first-ever Str8-Eight Champion!

Friday night in the Knight Club (9pm-?)

Alfred in Florence - Information Meeting

Date: FRIDAY, JAN. 25
Time: NOON
Location: PHOTO CLASSROOM, HARDER HALL ROOM 269

June 3 to July 4, 2013
Alfred University, in affiliation with Santa Reparata International School of Art, is offering DRAWING AND PAINTING IN FLORENCE, a four-week studio course in the heart of Florence, Italy. Kevin Wixted, Professor of Painting in the School of Art & Design, will lead the group and teach this course for both beginning and advanced students.

Students will discover the city through field trips and assignments that explore the art, architecture, landscape, and culture of Florence and its surrounding areas.

Painting and drawing on location and in the studio, students will create work based on their travels, observations and experiences. A range of techniques and conceptual approaches are addressed as students explore and interpret the rich cultural environment of Tuscany.

This 4-credit course is open to all Alfred University and NYSCC School of Art and Design students.

Estimated cost of $4,89 and includes Housing, Tuition, Studio Fees, Siena Field Trip, Museum Card, Cultural Program, and Welcome Dinner. Airfare and Meals are not included in this estimated cost.

For more info contact Professor Kevin Wixted at wixtedk@alfred.edu

APPLICATION DEADLINE IS THURSDAY, JAN. 31, 2013

Freshmen & Sophomores- Be an Overnight Host!

The Admissions Office is looking for reliable freshmen and sophomore students who are willing to host accepted students through our Overnight Program during the 2013 spring semester.

Overnight hosts are encouraged to share their experiences with prospective students, involve them with campus activities, and show them why you love Alfred!

You do not need extensive experience with Admissions, just a welcoming attitude and a sincere desire to represent Alfred University.

Overnights are offered Sunday-Thursday beginning Feb. 3 and will conclude on April 5. We are willing to work with your schedule and you will be rewarded at the end of the program for hosting!

If you are interested, please fill out the Overnight Host application and send it to Anne at Campbell@alfred.edu or send it intracampus mail to Alumni Hall- ATTN: Anne Campbell.

Students will be required to interview.

Family Program: theatreFiguren - Ferdinand - Puppet Theater

Saturday, Jan. 26 at 10:30 a.m.
Nancy Howe Auditorium
David A. Howe Public Library
155 N. Main St., Wellsville
585-593-3410

Michele Costa presents "The Story of Ferdinand," penned by Munro Leaf in 1935. It is the story of a little bull who would rather sit and smell the flowers than fight. Considered controversial in the 1930s, it is a story of "being yourself" with the message of nonviolence.

This library-sponsored program is free and open to the general public.
