12/06/99

Alfred, NY -- Dr. Marc Sackman, assistant professor of music and director of bands at Alfred University, recently took his flute off campus to teach and perform. Sackman served as a clinician at the four-day winter conference of the New York State School Music Association in Rochester Nov. 28 through Dec. 1. NYSSMA's winter conference is the largest annual meeting of music educators in New York state. His clinic was titled "Blowing Over, Not Over-Blowing: Use of Extended Techniques in Flute Tone Production." Also, Sackman directed the Flute Choir of the Rochester Flute Association in a performance at the Pittsford Barnes and Noble bookstore last Saturday (Dec. 4).
