

High school students have opportunity to study English-as-second-language at Alfred University

4/12/10

Alfred University is offering an English-as-a-Second Language (ESL) Summer Program for high school Students from Monday, July 5 to Saturday, July 24, 2010. Application deadline is Friday, April 16, 2010. This camp is for students ages 14-18 who have already received several years of English instruction and have a good basic knowledge of the language. The three-week ESL Summer Program will provide English instruction in a supportive environment, along with activities and cultural excursions, including a half-day trip to the Genesee Country Museum, Mumford. Students will attend classes in the morning and enjoy recreational activities in the afternoon and evening. The program fee is $2,995 per person; it includes tuition, housing, meals, program materials, activities, and a certificate of completion. Students who wish to apply must complete the application form, which can be found on <http://www.alfred.edu/sum...>, and return the application to the Office of Summer Programs. (Late applications will be considered, if space is available.)